Stock Trading Note - For Professional Adviser Use

June 2010

Action: BUY: Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) FTSE 100 Accelerator 450%

The RBS FTSE Accelerator product provides investors with 4.5x the first 30% rise in the FTSE 100 from the starting level of 5,158.85 (16/07/2010). The maximum return is therefore 135% for an investment made at par (£100).

Capital is protected provided the index does not fall by more than 50% at maturity. If the FTSE 100 hits or breaches the 50% barrier level at maturity then clients are exposed 1% for 1% to any downside movement of the FTSE 100.

This product was purchased for clients who were underweight UK equities and for non-ISA portfolios only, due to the term to maturity being less than 5 years.
